

MACKMEN WIN FIRST OF SERIES

Cleveland Outriths the League Leaders But Visitors Take Advantage of Numerous Bases on Balls.

CLEVELAND, July 10.—Philadelphia defeated Cleveland five to three in the first game of the series here Wednesday. Bases on balls by Mitchell proved costly. Conservative base running held Cleveland's score down, as they outrith their opponents. Bases on balls to Walsh and Collins, Baker's single and McInnis' double fly scored a run for Philadelphia in the first inning. Bases on balls to Baker and Barry and Schang's home run scored three more in the sixth. In the seventh, Collins' double, Baker's single and McInnis' double scored one. Blanding went in for Cleveland in the eighth. Cleveland scored in the fifth on O'Neil's double, Mitchell's single and Johnston's single. A rally in the ninth brought in two more for Cleveland but Bush tightened up and prevented further scoring. Cleveland . . . 000 010 002—3 12 2 Philadelphia . . . 100 003 100—5 10 0 Mitchell, Blanding and O'Neil; Bush and Schang. Umpires—Connelly and McGreevey.

SOX TAKE FIRST FROM THE YANKS

CHICAGO, July 9.—Scott and Schalk proved too much for New York Wednesday and Chicago shut out the visitors two to nothing. Scott struck out ten men, while Schalk's double, following Midkiff's fumble of Collins' grounder and Bodie's walk gave the locals the game. The home team threatened to score in the opening inning, but a lightning double play by Peckinpaugh and Hartzell prevented. Manager Chance of New York gave Knight, a new first baseman, a trial Wednesday and he played well. The electric annunciators, which were recently installed in the park by Pres. Comiskey, were given a work out Wednesday and proved satisfactory. Chicago . . . 000 000 000—0 6 1 New York . . . 000 000 000—0 6 1 Ford, Caldwell and Smith; Scott and Schalk. Umpires—Evans and Sheridan.

BORTON REFUSES TO GO TO JERSEY CITY

First Baseman Sold to New York May Land Back With St. Joseph in the Western.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 10.—First Baseman Borton, sold several days ago by the New York Americans to the Jersey City International, refuses to report to Jersey City and will arrive at his home here Wednesday. Manager Holland of the St. Joseph Western league team, with which Borton was playing when he went to the Chicago Americans late last season, said Wednesday he would try to have Borton returned to him.

CARDS DROP TWO TO THE BOSTON BRAVES

First is a Slaughter and Hitting of Myers and Sweeney is Enough to Win.

BOSTON, July 10.—Boston won both games of a double header from St. Louis Wednesday, the first by a score of 6 to 2, and the second by 10 to 6. The second game was called on account of darkness after 7-1-2 innings had been played.

Heavy hitting by the locals and the wildness of the St. Louis pitchers were directly responsible for the victories.

St. Louis . . . 000 100 101—3 12 2 Boston . . . 200 111 10*—6 10 1 Salie, Geyer and McLean; Wingo, Hess and Rariden. Umpires—Klem and Orth.

CUBS VICTIMS OF THE GIANTS

Marquard is in Great Shape and of the Four Hits Made Off Him Only One Was a Clean Safety.

NEW YORK, July 10.—New York made it 14 straight Wednesday, shutting out Chicago in the second game of the series three to nothing. Marquard held the visitors absolutely at his mercy. Of the four hits made off him only one was a clean. Schulte got a two base hit when Burns misjudged his fly, and Cheney and Evers got scratch singles. Cheney pitched a strong game for Chicago, his poor inning being the fourth, when New York scored two runs on singles by Fletcher and Doyle, and a double steal. Bresnahan's passed ball, and Cheney's wild pitch. A third run was scored by New York in the eighth on consecutive singles by Shafer, Fletcher and Doyle.

RAY COLLINS TOO MUCH FOR BROWNS

Holds St. Louis to Four Hits and Boston Wins Hands Down Nine to Nothing.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Boston won over St. Louis Wednesday nine to nothing. Ray Collins had the locals at his mercy while Boston hit St. Louis pitchers hard and took advantage of the home team's errors.

Boston scored in the first inning. In the ninth inning Powell, a Michigan university recruit, went to the mound for St. Louis and was hit for a single and passed one man. Three errors followed allowing three more visitors to cross the plate.

The Boston team's baggage failed to reach St. Louis and the Champions performed in the locals traveling uniforms. Boston . . . 104 000 103—9 10 0 St. Louis . . . 000 000 000—0 4 6 Collins and Carrigan; Leverenz, Wellman, Powell and Agnew. Umpires—Dineen and Egan.

Brennan pitched excellent ball and was taken out to permit Walsh to bat for him in the eighth. In the ninth Pittsburgh added two more runs on a single by McCarthy, Simon's double and a wild pitch by Alexander. Alexander hurt his side and was succeeded by Imlay, who, in turn, gave way to Mayer. Pittsburgh . . . 000 100 002—3 10 2 Philadelphia . . . 000 000 000—0 3 1 Adams and Simon; Brennan, Alexander, Imlay, Mayer and Hawley. Killifer. Umpires—Brennan and Eason.

CASCADE TAKES DAY'S FEATURE

Finishes Eighth in the First Two Heats at Cleveland, But Romps Home First in the Last Two.

CLEVELAND, July 10.—Favorites divided the honors with outsiders at the grand circuit races at North Randall track here Wednesday. Four events were carded and in only two did the so-called class F field perform according to form.

Baron A., top-heavy favorite in the 2:07 pace, won handily in two straight heats.

Farra, who received most of the backing in the 2:12 trot, also disposed of his field without trouble.

Empire Direct, conceded the 2:18 pace before the day's racing, was never in the running, and O'Brien Boy, liked only by a few, captured the event.

Cheeny, thought by the experts to be the likeliest entry in the Fasig stake race, the big event of the day's program, was distanced in the first heat. Cascade, who finished a poor eighth in this heat, won the next two without trouble.

The feature card of the day was the next event, the Fasig stake race. Cheeny, the favorite, was distanced in the very first heat. Cascade, a poor eighth in this heat, took the next two heats, with sides battling pressing him closely in the second. The third heat was driven in a heavy rain storm with lightning flashing over the course.

Farra, the favorite in the 2:12 trot, the final event of the afternoon, won handily.

REDS POUND OUT A VICTORY IN NINTH

Make Sensational Rally in Last Two Frames and Beat Brooklyn by One Score.

BROOKLYN, July 10.—Wednesday's game had a sensational finish, Cincinnati going into the ninth one run behind and battling out a six to five victory. Both sides battled heartily and Benton was knocked out of the box in the fourth. Devore led with the stick, getting four hits in five times up. Both teams fielded sharply.

Almeida, who replaced Dodge at third, was a big factor, figuring in a fast double play and driving in Marsans with the winning run. Three hundred Cuban military and civic officials who had just arrived in New York from the island and attended the game, held a celebration over the good work of their countrymen on the Cincinnati team. Three thousand children from the parochial school witnessed the game. Cincinnati . . . 001 002 012—6 17 1 Brooklyn . . . 100 310 000—5 13 1 Benton, Suggs, Harter, Brown and Clarke; Ragan and Miller. F. KELLEY.

As a fitting finale to a week of great athletics, beginning with the finish of the boy scouts' run from Washington, Chicago staged the senior championship contests of the Amateur Athletic Union. The greatest athletes of the land assembled in the Lake Michigan city to struggle for medals and honors. The biggest point winner of the meet was H. P. Drew, the marvelous colored sprinter, who won the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Drew was a member of the American Olympic team last year.

Kelley, the coast flyer, was another star performer, winning the 120-yard high hurdles from the fastest field that ever ran in the event in this country. Kelley won in the last stride, fairly throwing himself upon the tape ahead of the next man.
